

Monique Strydom

Founding member and Trustee of Matla a Abana – “A Voice against Child abuse”

The Child Trauma Conference is one of the most established conferences of its kind in South Africa. Keynote speakers are leading experts, in addition any child protector attending will not only walk away richer in knowledge but also inspired to keep going in the continued fight against child abuse.